

Construction Foreman

Position Summary

Directly responsible for supervising and coordinating a crew of workers to perform daily activities on bridges, highway, and heavy construction projects. This position may require the employee to travel depending on the location of the project. Headquartered in Savanna Oklahoma with the majority of work occurring in Central & North Texas and throughout Oklahoma. Company offers competitive salary, out-of-town accommodations, and daily per diem.

Requirements

- High school diploma or general education degree (GED)
- A minimum of 5 years of experience as a Foreman in the construction industry
- Familiarity with equipment, materials, and methods used in the construction industry
- Ability to communicate with others to convey information effectively
- Ability to read and understand project specific documents including construction plans, specifications, material data sheets, safety data sheets, and other pertinent project information
- Ability to keep organized records and to prepare work and time reports
- Ability to understand and efficiently carry out instructions
- Ability to work well under pressure and within established timelines
- Must be knowledgeable of safety procedures and practices
- Must be accustomed to working outdoors with exposure to all weather conditions
- Must be able to perform physical activities that may require climbing, lifting, balancing, walking, stooping, kneeling, bending, and handling of materials, equipment, and tools
- Must wear appropriate safety equipment as required by the company
- Must be willing and able to travel and work out of town on various jobsites
- Must either hold a valid government issued commercial driver's license or a standard driver's license but be willing to get a commercial license
- Must be able to pass pre-employment drug screening and E-verify.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary
- Medical
- 401K Plan
- Company-Paid Holidays
- Paid PTO
- Discretionary Bonus Program

Present Locations:

- Oklahoma, United States
- Texas, United States